200 Club

We are looking for two volunteers, preferably a couple, to take over the running of the 200 club for the parish. Christine no longer feels able to do this so we need the volunteers as soon as possible please. Christine has streamlined the process and put everything on a computer so that there is easy access. She is very willing to run through everything with the new volunteers until they feel ready to go it alone. Most of the year it involves just picking the winners each month but during November-January it also involves gathering in the money for numbers for the following year. If you feel you can help the parish in this very important fund raising endeavour do please speak to Fr. Benedict. Thank you!
