Dear Parishioners

November – Month of Holy Souls

In November it is traditional to pray for those who have died in our parish and our families. Due to the covid 19 restrictions we are unable to leave out the Holy Souls

Mass offering envelopes.

However, if you do wish to have Mass offered during November for someone who has died please put the name on a piece of paper together with your Mass offering in an envelope & pop it through the presbytery door.

A missionary learned that one of his prospective native converts had five wives. “You’re violating a law of God,” he said, “so you must go and tell four of those women they can no longer live here or consider you their husband.” The native thought for a few moments, then he said, “I’ll wait here. You tell ‘em.”

In a very minor way, that story illustrates several Christian values our society needs. Today many people are without the value of conviction. One belief is considered as valid as another, and consequently life hasn’t much meaning. This is one of the reasons why there’s so much youth disenchantment. Another value, courage, is often considered to be foolishly against enlightened self-interest. And the value of commitment, particularly on religious grounds, is considered antiquated. Those three values of conviction, courage and commitment are modern aspects of faith, hope and charity.

Let’s pray not only for the three C’s - conviction, courage and commitment - but also for all those qualities of life that make them possible: social justice, for example, without which genuine love isn’t possible; truth, which is another name for God and which means being faithful, trustworthy, and loyal; and freedom from internal as well as external constraints, that basic theme of the entire Bible that’s necessary before we can even begin to love.

God Bless,
Fr. Benedict OSB

PRAYER FOR A SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in this Holy Sacrament of the altar.

I love You above all things and I passionately desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come spiritually into my soul so that I may unite myself wholly to You now and forever. Amen

Based on a prayer of St Alphonsus Liguori

A big 'Thank You' to all those people who have sent cheques and cash over the last week. Please let us keep each other in our prayers.
God Bless you.

Please help us to help you and register your details as soon as you can. Because of diocesan regulations concerning GDPR Neil and I will be unable to send out the bulletins after the end of November!

There has been a definite change in the weather and autumn is certainly on its way. We are required to have the windows open in the church during Holy Mass & Sacramental Services to allow for adequate ventilation. Unfortunately, this does mean that the church may be a bit chilly. I would, therefore, encourage you to come prepared! If it is chilly outside – it will probably be chilly in the church – and a coat will help to keep you warm. There will be little point in putting the heating on, if the windows are open. If, and when, this advice from the Government and the English Bishops' conference changes, I will let you know.
