Information

We are still respectfully requesting that people wear a face covering in church if they can and that people please use the hand sanitizer on entry into the church.
Could I also please ask for more volunteers to be readers and ministers of communion for both Saturday and Sunday

Studley Churches Together

We have been asked if we could provide a representative for the Studley Churches Together Group. They meet once a month to arrange certain events. This week the Good Friday 'Walk of Witness' will take place starting in our car park at 10.00am.

If anyone feels they would like to represent us at these meetings please let Fr. Benedict know and he can pass on any information he has.

Many thanks.

How can we support Ukrainian Refugees? Studley Community Meeting - Monday 4th April. 7.15pm - 8.15 pm. Studley Methodist Church, Alcester Road, Studley

The aim of Monday's meeting is help support thinking and decision making for individuals, community groups and local businesses who want to help.

We will share our knowledge of current information and signposting for:

- 1. Those who are considering offering accommodation
- 2. Those who are considering being part of an experienced volunteer force of trainers and mentors for sponsors.

At the end of the meeting we will provide a way for individuals, community groups and local business's to register their interest, ideas and support.

We will ask the question "What's the next step"? - This could be but not necessarily forming a "Studley Wrap Around" support team providing support, skills, community spaces for refugees and host families in Studley.

Tea and coffee will be available from 7.00 pm on Monday, the meeting will start at 7.15 pm and we will finish by 8.15 at the latest.
