LITURGY

First reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

Response to the Psalm: My God, my God, why have you forsaken me.

Second reading: Philippians 2:6-11

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory. Christ became for us obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Therefore, God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name. Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory

Gospel: Luke 23:1-49

~~~~~
Dear Parishioners

By bringing together in a single liturgy two separate, contrary, contradictory, events – adulation when entering Jerusalem and rejection when being nailed to a cross– the Church confronts us, confuses us, with the Mystery that is Holy Week. We are to enter into the anguish of those who loved Jesus and expected so much of Him – so well expressed by the bewilderment of the disciples on the road to Emmaus.

And, you know, there are so many of this age and every other age who can make neither head nor tail of what happened to Jesus during the last few days of His life!

As we celebrate Palm Sunday we are called to identify with those who joyfully welcomed Jesus as the promised Messiah. But as we hear today's Passion Narrative we must accept Jesus' understanding of what that role really meant. We must accept Him on His own terms, not ours!

God Bless
Fr. Benedict OSB

Thank you to everyone who has donated items for the Bring & Buy table, your support is really appreciated.

Please leave any donations for the table in the black box at the back of the church and not directly on the table in the conservatory.

Thank you for your help.

Second Collection

The second weekly collection will normally be for help towards the upkeep of the house and church buildings. Both the church and the house are Grade II listed, so any work done has to be to a high standard as set by the requisite authority.

Because of the age of the buildings the work is continuous and ongoing. On occasion there will be other second collections and these will be noted here.
